

Housing Counseling Agencies Providing Foreclosure Mitigation

Homeowners who are facing a foreclosure may qualify for assistance through the Home Protection Program (HPP) or the National Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling (NFMC) program, both administered by the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency. The HPP provides counseling and bridge loans for qualified homeowners who have lost a job, while the NFMC provides counseling for homeowners who are facing foreclosure for any other reason. A list of counseling agencies in each county and the type of assistance they provide is below – consumers should apply for help directly with the appropriate agency.
