Housing Investments are Vital

The North Carolina Housing Finance Agency leverages public funds with private investments to finance affordable housing opportunities that move North Carolina, its economy, communities and citizens forward.
Since 1973

A self-supporting public agency, we consistently keep our operating costs to less than 2% of housing financed while maintaining an AA+/Aa1 bond rating.

🏠 306,130 homes and apartments financed
👩  $27.6 billion in real estate value produced
💼 282,260 jobs supported
💰 $2.1 billion in tax revenues generated

All numbers are based on Agency program counts and value tabulations, with economic impacts assessed using the Bureau of Economic Analysis RIMS II Model.

Housing Investments Proved Vital in 2020

In 2020, the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency passed the billion-dollar mark in total annual investment for tax credit apartment development, expanded home ownership options in underserved counties and supported state efforts to assist renters hit hard by the economic impacts of COVID-19. Successfully pivoting to remote operations as necessitated by the pandemic, the Agency continued its strong track record of leveraging public-private partnerships to create affordable housing opportunities in 460 communities.

2020 IMPACT

- 12,990 homes and apartments financed
- $2.4 billion in real estate value produced
- 24,740 jobs supported
- $72.9 million in tax revenue generated

Housing investments supported job creation, boosted small businesses, increased state and local tax revenues and infused more than a billion dollars in wages and spending into the state’s economy in a year that highlighted more than ever the significant challenge of housing availability in North Carolina.

Our investments helped keep the affordable housing industry moving in a tough economy. While development was slowed by the implementation of new safety standards and the rising costs of construction, building and rehabilitation of homes and apartments continued across the state, delivering and preserving much needed housing for North Carolinians.

COMMUNITY HOME OWNERSHIP

Home ownership investments contribute to neighborhood stability and shore up surrounding communities because homeowners are less likely to move often and more likely to be civically engaged.

The Agency provides financing to build and rehabilitate homes for low-wealth North Carolinians through local governments and nonprofit organizations that participate in our Community Partners Loan Pool (CPLP) and Self-Help Loan Pool (SHLP). Partners use the funding for down payment assistance, mortgage financing and energy efficiency subsidies to make home ownership more affordable. In 2020, we invested $15.2 million through local home ownership partners to create new neighborhoods and boost older communities.

ALL-TIME COMMUNITY HOME OWNERSHIP INVESTMENTS

Our Agency protects home ownership by preventing foreclosures, vacancies and disrepair that can damage community strength. We assist homeowners facing foreclosure through the State Home Foreclosure Prevention Project (SHFPP), which offers free housing counseling, access to legal services for low-income homeowners and assistance working with servicers through participating HUD-approved housing counseling organizations statewide. Since its creation by the General Assembly in 2008, SHFPP has saved more than 18,220 homes and provided housing counseling to more than 130,970 homeowners.

- 7,820 homes produced
- $984.2 million in property financed
- 14,840 jobs supported
- $91 million in tax revenues generated

We also finance vital repairs, rehabilitation and accessibility modifications to help low-wealth homeowners through the Urgent Repair Program, the Essential Single-Family Rehabilitation Loan Pool and the Displacement Prevention Partnership. In 2020, the Agency awarded $14.8 million through these programs to 47 local governments and nonprofit agencies across the state that will use the financing to help seniors, veterans and people with disabilities avoid costly institutions and allow them to age in place. Helping these individuals remain in their homes is especially important in the midst of a pandemic.

Housing Investments Are Vital for North Carolinians

RENTERS

Affordable apartments give parents the financial flexibility and time to invest in their children’s development and education, leading to better test scores for the children and more money to put toward college and other educational expenses. This housing is also vital for elderly North Carolinians with low, fixed incomes who are challenged by rising rents at a time when they also may be grappling with increasing health care costs.

38 Housing Credit developments completed in 2020
2,880 apartment homes for working families
610 apartment homes for seniors
410 units targeting people with disabilities

The Agency’s work in 2020 will help more than 40,000 North Carolinians move their lives in new directions. More than 35,000 of these are renters in need of affordable apartments or rental assistance.
Families with very low incomes may find affordable apartments still out of reach without additional assistance. Multiple studies find that low-income families often prioritize rent over health care, making rental assistance a critical tool to improve health outcomes of vulnerable children and minimize public health care costs.

The Agency oversees the administration of project-based Section 8 Rent Assistance on behalf of the US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), which helped 23,710 low-income families in 2020. In addition, rental assistance partnerships with the NC Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS) helped 4,740 vulnerable North Carolinians.

HOME BUYERS

Studies show that home buyers with low incomes realize multigenerational benefits through home ownership.

Specifically, children of homeowners are more likely to break out of the cycle of poverty, become homeowners themselves and experience increased wealth over their lifetimes. Agency investments of nearly $648 million—fueled in large part by the NC Home Advantage Mortgage™ with up to 5% down payment assistance—continued to help North Carolinians build wealth by providing affordable mortgage options for buyers with low and moderate incomes. While the pandemic created hurdles for home buyers, the Agency’s $8,000 NC 1st Home Advantage Down Payment provided the boost that many first-time buyers and military veterans needed to overcome obstacles to home ownership.

“These are beautiful homes all built with love. Our quality of life improved the day we walked in the door. The way these homes are designed—this home gave my wife her dignity back, with open places and the walk-in showers. I’ll be able to give quality care and keep us together longer.”

HOME BUYER, CRESCENT MAGNOLIA, HILLSBOROUGH
Debra had watched the health of her daughter, Victoria, 24, fail rapidly, finally resulting in a diagnosis of avascular necrosis, a painful loss of bone tissue. Rutherford Housing Partnership used funding from the Agency’s Urgent Repair Program to build a ramp that provides Victoria with safe access in and out of her home. The family said ‘that simple ramp has made a world of difference.’

State Housing Investments are Vital

Affordable housing is essential for North Carolina. The Agency leveraged the NC Housing Trust Fund with private sector and federal dollars to finance 1,070 affordable homes and apartments for low-income families, seniors, veterans and people with disabilities in 2020. Nearly 93% of those helped have incomes below 60% of their area's median income, with close to half below 30% of the area median income.

The NC Housing Trust Fund finances the Agency's Supportive Housing Development Program (SHDP) for new construction and the rehabilitation or adaptive re-use of existing buildings to create permanent supportive housing rental units, emergency shelters, re-entry housing, licensed group homes and housing related to programs that provide services for special needs groups.
