Good morning,

Thank you for the opportunity to provide comments for this upcoming program. All of our comments have already been expressed by others with the exception of the following:

Allow homeowners who are in imminent default to receive assistance rather than requiring them to be delinquent before they can receive help. Obviously, parameters would have to be determined for eligibility but Counselors could provide budget sessions to determine if homeowners are on the verge of becoming delinquent.

We look forward to continuing our partnership and utilizing these funds to assist families in need.
